“ZOOTOPIA”

As we celebrate the 40th Anniversary of Performing Dance Arts, we are incredibly proud to be part of this remarkable legacy. We are honoured to continue building upon the foundation that came before us while looking ahead to the future with excitement, passion, and purpose. If Canada has a first family of dance, the Performing Dance Arts family is the undisputed architects of that dynasty. For forty years, the heartbeat of Performing Dance Arts has been defined by more than just movement; it has been defined by a lineage of excellence, passion, and an unwavering commitment to the craft.

It began with Brian and Faye Foley, two visionaries who met in the studio, united by a singular drive to elevate the standard of dance education. But the true legacy of the Foley family is not in the steps they taught or the standard they established...it is in the generations that followed. From their children Debbie Noce, Danny and Lisa Poland, who stepped into leadership to carry the torch, and now Ryan and Ashley Daychak, who continue to expand the mission with now three locations and two partners, Vanessa Carloni and Patricia Scrofano. After decades of legacy, it remains a family affair.

Leading PDA has been one of the greatest privileges of my life. This journey has been, and will always be, something I am proud to lead, grow, and use to inspire our dance community. Over the years, we have built a strong and supportive family that now spans three thriving locations, united by a shared love of dance and commitment to excellence.

As we look to the next chapter, we remain dedicated to elevating the experience for every dancer and family who walks through our doors. We are excited to continue growing, evolving, and serving as a place where children can begin their dance journey, build confidence, create lifelong friendships.

Thank you to my family, Brian and Faye Foley, Debbie Noce, and Danny and Lisa Poland, for creating this incredible legacy. Thank you to every dancer, parent, teacher, staff member, and alumni who has been part of our story over the past 40 years. Your support, dedication, and belief in PDA have made this milestone possible.

Lastly, I would like to thank my husband and partner, Ryan Daychak, for everything you do to support me and our family. No words can ever explain how much gratitude I have for you. I am forever grateful to share this journey with you.

Happy 40th Anniversary, Performing Dance Arts! Here's to celebrating our legacy and embracing an exciting future ahead.

I would like to thank you for coming to “SHOWTIME”, sit back relax and enjoy the show!

Sincerely,
Ashley Daychak

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL!

This year has been such a fantastic season of DANCE! Congratulations to all our Recreational dancers on an incredible year of dance! Your growth this season has been a beautiful thing to watch. Bravo dancers!

We would like to thank everyone who has been so supportive this year.

First, to our incomparable faculty who continue to inspire and motivate all our students to reach their highest level of excellence as dancers and humans. Our faculty works together to ensure our dancers have a well-rounded dance education that will support whatever their future holds for them. We are forever grateful to you all... Thank you!

To our community of dance parents, we thank you for continuing to choose PDA year after year. Your support means the world to us. At PDA, our mission is to cultivate a positive, inspiring, and safe environment for every dancer who walks through our doors. Through dedication, hard work, and a shared love for dance, we remain committed to creating a community that strives for excellence in all that we do.

We can't wait to continue growing, learning, and dancing together.

We would like to thank you for coming to "ZOOTOPIA" - sit back, relax and enjoy the show!

Sincerely,

Ryan & Ashley Daychak, Vanessa Carloni and Patricia Scrofano

*"Erica, congratulations on being a graduate!! We are so proud of you. Keep

Love you always , Mom, Dad & Emma*

"Ava, today as you graduate from dance, we find ourselves reflecting on a lifetime of memories that have unfolded within these studio walls.

Before you took your first class, before you learned your first pli , before you stepped onto a stage, this studio was already your second home. You grew up in the hallways, backstage at competitions, in rehearsals, and among the countless dancers who became part of your extended family.

We have had the incredible privilege of watching you experience every side of this studio, not only as the daughter of its owners, but as a dancer who worked hard and persevered through challenges.

We have watched you grow from a little girl spinning through the lobby into a strong, confident young woman. Dance has taught you discipline, resilience, and determination, but more importantly, it has given you a safe place for you to build amazing memories and friendships.

As this chapter comes to a close, know that graduating from dance does not mean leaving behind everything you've built here. The lessons, memories, friendships, will travel with you wherever life takes you next.

We could not be more proud of the dancer you became, but even more proud of the person you are. Congratulations, baby girl."

*With all our love,
Mom and Dad*
